15th Annual Raffle for the Río

Win a Week at the Beach

A Week for Two on the Mexican Yucatan

Includes roundtrip airfare and seven nights lodging by the Caribbean Sea.

Your casita - including private courtyard shaded by palapa or palm - is just a few short steps from white sand & the calm waters of Akumal Bay.

"Akumal" is Mayan for "Place of the Turtle" so.... yes, gentle sea turtles may greet you!

Climb to the famous Mayan ruins of Tulum, or visit the Centro Ecological Akumal, which offers tours to promote Yucatan conservation issues.

Nearby eco/water parks are attractive, or bask in sun and sea at world renown Playa del Carmen.

When you tire of lazing on the beach (is it possible?), snorkel or scuba dive amid a carnival of underwater colors provided by coral & cheerful schools of blue tang and parrot fish. Explore the shore by kayak, go deep-sea fishing – or play a relaxing game of tennis!

Las Casitas Akumal welcomes families with children. The spacious interior of each casita contains two bedrooms and two baths, with a fully-equipped kitchen, air-conditioning, and daily cleaning service.

Seven Days in the Andes

Seven Days in the Sacred Valley of the Inca

Includes roundtrip airfare to Cuzco, Peru with accommodations for seven nights at the Pisac Inn.

Nestled in the Sacred Valley of the Incas, the village of Pisac is surrounded by brehtaking mountains, with the beautiful Wilkamayu River running through the fertile valley's heart. Each morning on the plaza, the renowned market comes to life. You can enjoy the magical landscape while immersing yourself in the sights, sounds, tastes and arts of the market at your leisure.

Pisac Inn is small, charming, and full of details that honor Quechua tradition. A relaxed atmosphere and warm hospitality -- including authentic Andean cuisine and the opportunity to indulge in a natural rock heated sauna or herbal massage -- help celebrate the continuity and vitality of an ancient living culture. Pleasant climate, lower altitude, and the quiet excitement of a small Andean town with locally grown food and textiles, combine with proximity and easy access to Cuzco and Machu Picchu.

Drawing to be held June 3, 2010

For 21 years, Amigos Bravos has acted in the belief that our communities should have the technical knowledge and organizational skills to protect and preserve their own local rivers and water. We work hard to provide that knowledge and those skills to communities across the state. In return, we depend on your support so that we can be as quick to respond as possible when threats to our rivers arise. When you buy a raffle ticket, you ensure that all of us – working together – can protect and restore the rivers and waters that sustain us.
